EXPORT CERTIFICATION

(This is not part of the official certification)

SPECIES: DOGS AND CATS

COUNTRY: SINGAPORE

NOTES: This certificate replaces that dated 13 March 2017. It has been updated to comply with the model certificate supplied by the Agri-Food & Veterinary Authority (AVA) of Singapore.

1. The dog/cat shall be accompanied by an original vaccination certificate, which also bears the identification code of the microchip that has been implanted. The vaccination certificate also bears the details (name of veterinarian, name and address of veterinary practice) and endorsement of licensed/registered veterinarian who vaccinated the dog/cat and verified the microchip identification code.
2. The dog/cat shall be accompanied by a valid import licence and additionally a dog licence for dogs issued by the Agri-Food and Veterinary services Authority (AVA) of Singapore. The owner or his agent must apply for the Import Licence by submitting an online application through AVA's website (<http://www.ava.gov.sg/e-Services>), 30 days prior to the arrival of animals. Owners or agents importing dogs must apply for the dog licence prior to the import licence application.
3. The owner or his agent shall contact the Quarantine Office as stated in the Import Licence at least five (5) working days before the arrival of the animals.
4. This certificate must not be dated more than 7 days prior to export.
5. The microchip that is implanted into the dog/cat must meet with ISO (International Standards Organisation) Standard 11784 or Annex A to ISO Standard 11785. If the dog is implanted with a microchip which does not comply with these ISO Standards, the owner of the dog or his authorised agent must provide a reader which is able to read the identification code for the implanted microchip at the point of entry into Singapore.
6. On arrival at the port of disembarkation in Singapore, the dog/cat and documents (Import Licence, Veterinary Health Certificate, Dog Licence, Captain's Declaration and vaccination card) shall be presented to and examined by an authorised Veterinary Officer. If the animal is found to be healthy and documents are in order, the animal shall be released to the owner or his agent.
7. If the animal does not meet the residency requirements upon arrival, the animal shall be quarantined at the Sembawang Animal Quarantine Station to make up for the shortfall in duration mandated by the residency requirement.
8. If any animal is not healthy or if any document is not in order, or quarantine space is unavailable, the animal shall be returned to the country of export, detained for up to two weeks for observation or destroyed at the discretion of the Director-General of Agri-Food and Veterinary Services.
9. Owners must ensure that the animal is transported in escape-proof containers conforming to the latest International Air transport Association's (IATA) Live Animal Regulations (if transport is by air).
10. Owners must ensure that the animal is not pregnant at the time of export.
11. The animal for export must be fully vaccinated according to manufacturers recommendations.

11. Owners should be aware of the conditions for keeping dogs above 3 months of age in Singapore as pets.

Section 61A Animal Products Act 1999 states that 'The Crown is not liable, and nor is the Director-General or any employee of the Ministry liable, for any loss arising through the refusal or failure of the relevant authority of an overseas market to admit export animal material or animal product to that market'.
